

Hale

- The first commentary when he comes in
- The books he carries.

How his arrival symbolises the current conflict in Salem.
Putnam wants Hale to come as he wants to prove that it is not his fault they are losing children, it is witchcraft.

Despite his honest attempt, he gets deceived by the children.
He believes that anyone can fall toward witchery.

Can analyse the effect of Proctor's words on Hale.

↳ even though he is a minister, he is telling them to lie in court, lie in court. He thinks that dying is worthless and life

- transformation as a character
↳ imp point
